AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

SENIORS WILL PRESENT FLAG POLE AS MEMORIAL TO G. U. H. S.

At their last business meeting of the year the seniors yesterday assembled in the auditorium a little before noon for the purpose of clearing up all of the class' affairs. The most important question to be decided upon was the nature of this year's memorial, a custom which is carried out year by the graduating class. Such gifts to the school were mentioned as a cover for the grand stand, ornamental lights, a curtain for the auditorium, a flagpole, benches, etc., and after a lengthy discussion they finally agreed that a flagpole would make the most appropriate present. A committee, with Earl Brown as chairman, was appointed to have the pole erected. It will cost the class approximately $50.

The remainder of the time was spent by the annual reports of the committees and the treasurer, after which the new class song was practiced for several minutes. Mr. Howe announced to them that the entire senior class would have to be present this morning at 9 o'clock to take their American history examination all together. This created quite a little uneasiness among some of the members, as some of the girls stated that it was contrary to their plans.

The student body election for officers for next year took place yesterday, there being a very light vote cast. Everyone was too wrapped up in examinations to vote. Although the exact result of the election has not been given out, it is assured that Walter Beach, the Glendale candidate, won out by a considerable margin. Walter, known more familiarly to his friends as "Brick," is one of the most popular students in school, and he should attain all the success next year that is being wished him by his classmates. Harland Durand, the candidate from the "mountain country," was second in the list.

Much excitement reigned around school yesterday noon when the entire allotment of Stylus was delivered to the Stylus headquarters in the men teachers' room. Several hundred students swarmed about to receive their book, but as the books were just bound the night before they were not yet dry and it was announced that they would not be given out until Friday. This is the earliest date that the Stylus has ever been published, and Harold Venske, who has been instrumental in making it so, deserves a large amount of credit for his diligent and earnest efforts.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON VISITORS.

Attorney C. L. Chandler of 239 North Central avenue, vice-president of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, has entire charge of arranging for the reception of the men and boys of the Temple Baptist Church, Los Angeles, when they pass through our city Saturday afternoon at about 5 o'clock. This organization of men will visit Universal City, Lankershim, Van Nuys and Burbank, and enter Glendale from Burbank by way of Kenneth road, coming south on Central avenue to First street, east on First to Brand boulevard, south on Brand to Broadway, east on Broadway to Glendale avenue, south on Glendale avenue to Colorado street, west on Colorado street to Central, and from there they will go to Griffith Park, where a camp dinner will be enjoyed.

Attorney Mattison B. Jones of 106 Orange street, Glendale, who is prominently identified with the men's organization of the Temple Baptist Church, will serve as marshal of this great parade of more than 250 men and boys. The Glendale Chamber of Commerce and the city officials and the citizens in general will give the visitors a hearty reception.

TRIMMING PALM TREES.

Frank A. Marek, who looks after the trees in the city's parkways, is trimming the palms on Brand boulevard this week. Mr. Marek says a number of people have asked him for the palm leaves for making shades and summer houses and he has postponed trimming the palms until the beginning of the warm weather. Any who wish to use the palm leaves should see Mr. Marek at once.

FOOTHILL CLUB.

Mrs. Walter J. Elliott, 1005 North Central avenue, will entertain the Foothill Club at their regular monthly meeting, Friday afternoon, June 15. The ladies are asked to bring their thimbles as the afternoon will be spent in sewing for the Red Cross.

CHANGE IN BRIDGE

BRIDGES AT BRAND ACROSS THE WASH MAY BE MOVED 150 FEET SOUTH.

The present condition of Pacific Electric Railway bridge and the county bridge, which span the wash on Brand boulevard, has not been satisfactory to the public, and plans are being worked out whereby the Supervisors of the county and the Pacific Electric Company will build a new bridge about 150 feet south of the present one, and that will necessitate straightening the channel of the wash, beginning at a point near Louise street, west to near Central avenue. The new bridge will likely be the full width of the street and will be used by the public highway traffic and the electric cars. When this change has been made the Burbank line will connect with the main line north of the bridge, and this will do away with the bridge on the Burbank line that now blocks the flow of the water at the time of floods.

Men who have been working hard to bring about this very much needed change are City Manager T. W. Watson, Mattison B. Jones, John A. Cole, John Robert White, Frederick Baker and H. B. Lynch.

Members of the executive board of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce will be present this evening at a meeting of the board of city trustees to further urge the building of the new bridge referred to above.

HIGH SCHOOL EXHIBITS.

Everybody is welcomed to the open house at the high school this afternoon and tonight and also tomorrow afternoon and evening. The hours are 3 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. The painting, drawing, modelling and other work of the fine arts department, the machine shop and wood shop work, the commercial department and household arts—all are represented in the annual exhibition.

For many days teachers and students have been working overtime arranging the exhibits. Patrons of the high school may well be proud of the long corridors decorated with the best products of the year's work. All is free and all interested are invited to spend anytime from ten minutes to two hours viewing these fine exhibits.

COMPLIMENT MRS. WIGHTMAN.

Mrs. G. Phillips and Miss Eva Daniels, 1424 West Colorado street, entertained Wednesday afternoon with a patriotic luncheon in honor of Mrs. A. H. Wightman, who, with her family, leaves the latter part of this month for her new home at Independence, Cal. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers in the national colors, the centerpiece being a miniature flag pole. Cards were laid for Mrs. Wightman, Mrs. John Lyons, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. Purser, Mrs. David S. Bennett, Mrs. Guild, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. George E. Daniels, Mrs. Ira Gould, Mrs. George Lyons, Mrs. C. A. Bridge, Miss Mable Cappell, Mrs. Plummer Van Zant.

Games were enjoyed in which the prize winners were Mrs. Ira Gould, Mrs. Wightman and Mrs. Van Zant.

A musical program was rendered. Miss Cappell and little Miss Helen Daniels gave several selections. Miss Mildred McKee read a poem dedicated to Mrs. Wightman and written by Miss Daniels. Mrs. George Lyons and Miss Reba Phillips gave several fine piano selections and the little program ended with a dance by little Miss Rhodora McKee.

WISCONSIN ASSOCIATION.

The Wisconsin Association of Los Angeles county will hold a picnic for former Wisconsin residents and their friends at Sycamore Grove on June 30, 1917. There will be a good program. Coffee will be served on the grounds. All Wisconsin people and their friends are cordially invited to be present and renew old acquaintances.

TRAINING THE GIRL.

"School Credits for Home Work" and "The Training of the High School Girl" were topics of discussion at the meeting of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle yesterday, at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Toll. The basis for the discussion is William A. McKeever's book "Training the Girl."

New members yesterday were Mrs. Ethel M. Doyle and Mrs. George H. Herald. Guests were Miss Kathryn Bailey, Miss Beresford Joy of Los Angeles and Mrs. J. B. Wagon. Thirty women attended the meeting.

JAPANESE MISSION COMING

RELATIONS BETWEEN UNITED STATES AND JAPAN HAVE BEEN ADJUSTED THROUGH EXPLANATIONS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, June 14.—Japan is sending a diplomatic mission to the United States that will leave about July 1. Relations between Japan and the United States, upset and made delicate over the misstatement of America's purpose in China, have been straightened out through explanations sent to the American embassy in Tokio.

SUGAR FACTORY EXPLOSION

MILLION DOLLAR REFINING PLANT WRECKED AS RESULT OF SUSPICIOUS ACCIDENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
NEW YORK, June 14.—One man was killed and five are dying while fourteen are still missing as a result of a "suspicious explosion" in the million dollar sugar refining plant that is manufacturing sugar for the Allies. Five employees' badges, a human arm and hat were found in the debris this morning. Seventy-five men were trapped in the building when the explosion occurred. Those who escaped did so after receiving burns and wounds.

FIGHTING IN GREECE

ABDICATION OF KING CONSTANTINE NOT UNACCOMPANIED BY BLOODSHED AS WAS SUPPOSED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, June 14.—The Allies' forced abdication of King Constantine of Greece was not unaccompanied by some bloodshed, according to delayed advices from Saloniki. Greek troops fired on French cavalry, killing two French officers and four cavalymen. Sixty Greek soldiers were killed and 296 men captured.

SANTA FE FLIER WRECKED

FIREMAN WOOD KILLED WHEN "THE MISSIONARY" IS WRECKED NEAR BARSTOW THIS MORNING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LOS ANGELES, June 14.—Fireman J. F. Wood was killed and four others were injured when the Santa Fe flier, "The Missionary," was wrecked near Barstow, Cal., early this morning. None of the passengers was injured.

FIGHTING FOR RIGHTS

PRESIDENT STATES POSITION OF UNITED STATES IN THE PRESENT WORLD WAR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, June 14.—"America is at war in defense of her rights as a free people and a sovereign government." President Wilson this afternoon thus stated why America is fighting, in a speech vibrant with the realization of the blood and suffering this country must endure in this war.

XENIA OUSTS GERMAN

BOARD OF EDUCATION IN OHIO TOWN REPLACES GERMAN LANGUAGE WITH SPANISH AND FRENCH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
XENIA, Ohio, June 14.—The Spanish and French languages will replace German in Xenia's public schools at the opening of the next term, it was announced here to-day.

NEW JAWBONE

LONDON, June 14.—Private McDonald of Omaha has a new jawbone to-day, thanks to the skill of British surgeons. McDonald is with the sixtieth battalion. During a charge at the German trenches a shrapnel burst overhead and when he came to his senses a piece of his jaw was gone. A bone was grafted to fill the gap and now all that indicates the wound is a red scar running from the back of his jaw to his mouth.

WAR LEADERS FROM LOWLY STATION

LONDON, June 14.—The lowly boyhood of Premier Lloyd George, suddenly brought into contrast with his achievements of middle life, has caused the English people to scrutinize the early careers of other entente leaders. Ex-Premier Briand, of France, it was ascertained, was the son of a cafe owner at St. Nazaire. His first job was that of a reporter for a labor paper, so poorly paid that he had to decline a lecture invitation because he had no shoes. General Smuts, ex-rebel and now a participant in the Empire Council because of his victories over the Germans in Africa, spent his boyhood herding his father's sheep in Cape Colony. Sir Sam Hughes, the Australian Premier, also rose from a lowly rank in life and narrowly missed participation in the Empire Council.

FRUIT CANNING

FOOD CONSERVATION COMMITTEE HOLDS AN IMPORTANT MEETING.

By WALT LE NOIR CHURCH.
Wednesday, in the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, was a very important meeting of a joint committee representing most of the women clubs and associations in Glendale including the Central avenue P.-T. A., represented by Mrs. Spindler and Mrs. Lachman; Columbus avenue P.-T. A., Mrs. J. R. White; Pacific avenue P.-T. A., Mrs. Minnette Sherman; Colorado boulevard P.-T. A., Mrs. Frank W. Chambers; the Glendale Union High School, Mrs. Nichols; Broadway P.-T.A., Mrs. Mary S. Moore; Doran school P.-T. A., Mrs. Cassell, while the representative of the intermediate, Mrs. Yarick, was absent.

The representatives of the churches present were Mrs. Dressider of the Adventist Church, Mrs. Olive Marvel, First Methodist; Mrs. Deitrich and Mrs. Henke, West Glendale Methodist; Mrs. Moore, Christian; Mrs. Albert Chase, Congregational; Mrs. Williams, Episcopal; Mrs. Bright, Baptist, while the Catholic (Mrs. Ewins,) and the Lutheran and the Presbyterian representatives were absent. The British Ambulance Society was represented by Mrs. Campbell; the Woman's Auxiliary to Home Guards, by Mrs. Herman West, Mrs. Church and Mrs. Mitchell. Tuesday Afternoon Club by Mrs. Bartlett. These representatives were presided over by Mrs. Kara S. Root, chairman, who was assisted by Mrs. Barton.

They were appointed by an Executive Committee, appointed by Dr. Jessie Russell, Mrs. Bartlett and Mrs. Crofton, who were a General Committee appointed by Glendale's Mayor, in pursuance of action taken by a general meeting of Mayors, requested by the county organization designated by the State representatives of the national association to carry out President Wilson's plans for food conservation and production.

The State Committee of Defense sent out printed "Preliminary Suggestions on Conservation of Food and Elimination of Waste," which contained a great deal of valuable information, covering a wide field of inquiry, containing also the numbers of important bulletins which can be had free on application to the government Department of Agriculture at Washington. Also several which cost a small sum each. The secretary, Miss Eulalia Richardson, 805 South Central avenue, Glendale, can supply those free bulletins, or tell where they may probably be obtained in Glendale.

Mrs. Barton arranged this meeting for demonstration in the Chamber of Commerce, where from 3:30 to 4:30 Wednesday afternoon it was demonstrated how easy it is to can fruit and vegetables in any kind of can or bottle, at a minimum of time and cost.

Several special committees were appointed as follows: Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Bright were appointed a committee to investigate fruit dryers and arrange for a demonstration.

Mrs. West moved to advertise in the local papers for a woman who would use a canner to preserve fruit and vegetables under the supervision of the committee, composed of Mrs. Henry Cassell, Mrs. May Church, Mrs. Albert Chase, Mrs. H. West and Mrs. Frank W. Chambers. They are to select such operator from those who answer the advertisement or otherwise apply.

The committee of representatives adjourned, to meet again at the call of the president, Mrs. Root, it being understood that the Glendale Chamber of Commerce is at their disposal for such meetings of the main committee, or any subcommittee, whenever not otherwise engaged. While the committee was in session the secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce was permitted to distribute copies of the Glendallian plan for encouraging continuous production of foods by having the government provide for a minimum price, large enough to guarantee a fair profit over the cost of production. The plan was favorably received and will be discussed among those numerous associations.

As printed circulars of the Glendallian plan are being sent to women's clubs, societies and associations, to legislators, national and State, to Y.M.C.A. association, to commercial associations, to agricultural societies and periodicals, prominent newspapers and magazines, city Mayors and other public men all over the United States, it is quite likely that many millions of people will have Glendale brought to their special and favorable notice within the next week or ten days, and that their interest herein will be cumulative, as the im-

MR. WOODBERRY HURT

SUFFERS PAINFUL BRUISES AND LACERATIONS WHEN STRUCK BY AN AUTO.

G. B. Woodberry is suffering from various cuts and bruises as the result of an accident in which he was the victim this morning. Mr. Woodberry had been to Los Angeles on his motorcycle and was returning home when the accident occurred. As he passed the Scovern-Letton-Frey undertaking parlors on Brand boulevard, Dr. Hunt, with R. A. Blackburn, was driving west on Acacia and as Dr. Hunt started to cross Brand boulevard he struck Mr. Woodberry, who was thrown from his motorcycle through the air to the curb. He was severely shocked and his right arm and leg badly lacerated and bruised although no bones were broken. His injuries were attended to at once by Dr. Mabry and he was conveyed to his home, 419 South Glendale avenue, in the Scovern - Letton - Frey ambulance. While his injuries are very painful it is very gratifying to report that Mr. Woodberry was not seriously injured.

MRS. KIMBERLY HONORED.

A very happy affair was the luncheon given at the home of Mrs. Ella W. Richardson Wednesday by the ladies of the Executive Committee of the Tropic Thursday Afternoon Club in honor of Mrs. Charles W. Kimberly, who has been their president for the past year. Decorations were of Dorothy Perkins roses and Australian daisies. Covers were laid for eleven at the beautifully appointed table, centered by a very handsome pottery bowl of Australian daisies, which at the close of the luncheon was presented on behalf of the board to the surprised and delighted guest of honor. Following the luncheon toasts were given and all were loud in their praise of the work of Mrs. Kimberly as their president the past year. Those present besides the hostess and the guest of honor were Mrs. C. H. Woolsey, Miss Ida Myers, Mrs. G. G. Henry, Mrs. Finley, Mrs. Wesley Bullis, Mrs. J. Herbert Smith, Mrs. A. J. Becker, Mrs. Edwin Virden and Mrs. H. W. Fleming.

SECRETARY G. C. C. ABSENT.

Before this goes to press, Walt Le Noir Church, secretary Glendale Chamber of Commerce, will be on the way to Lebanon, Mo., a little town in the Ozarks, near Springfield, where his old mother, Mrs. Julia Le Noir Church, lives. She is quite feeble. Mr. Church expects to meet in Lebanon his brother, Samuel S. Church, Esq., a prominent Cincinnati lawyer, formerly associated with the secretary G. C. C., as one of the organizers of Snow, Church & Co., a commercial agency known for years throughout the eastern States.

Incidentally Mr. Church mentioned that his son, L. C. Church, E. M., a very successful zinc mine and mill owner of Joplin, Mo., and Oklahoma, sent him as a present a draft to cover all expenses of the trip, which will last about ten days. Meanwhile the Chamber of Commerce will be taken care of by the assistant secretary, Mrs. Catherine M. Church, wife of the secretary, who will also arrange for any meetings that are to be held in the Chamber of Commerce during the temporary absence of the secretary.

MUSIC SECTION.

The Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club meets at the home of the curator, Mrs. Kinney, Friday afternoon of this week. All members are asked to make a special effort to be present, as this is the last meeting of the year.

THIRD DEGREE TONIGHT.

The Glendale Lodge, I.O.O.F., will put on the third degree at the regular meeting tonight in their hall, corner Third and Isabel streets. All members are expected to be present.

portance of the subject is realized. The Glendallian plan has already gone to all the departments of the national government at Washington and to many States. This is the first good opportunity to advertise Glendale favorably to the whole nation, which has come to the present secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and it is being systematically used as rapidly as may be.

Note: It is requested that anyone wishing to undertake to can fruit or vegetables, as provided above, will communicate with some member of that committee—Mrs. Henry Cassell, Mrs. May Church, Mrs. Albert Chase, Mrs. Herman West or Mrs. Frank W. Chambers.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1917.

THE MUNICIPAL FLAG-STAFF

To-day is Flag Day. All honor to Old Glory and the great country for which it stands.

It seems apropos on this day to recall what was written in a recent issue of the News regarding a municipal flag-staff to serve as a beautifier of this beautiful city of Glendale, as a reminder of our collective patriotism and, particularly, as a permanent record of the Glendale boys who did not wait till Registration Day to cast their lot in with our country's fighting and defensive forces.

Exactly one month ago, or on May 14, Doctor Harrower suggested in the News that a flag and pole be secured by public subscription and raised at the most prominent place in Glendale, and that upon the pole be fixed a plate containing a list of Glendale's Honor Roll. Several expressed their willingness to co-operate to accomplish this and one generous-hearted citizen offered to pay one-tenth of the entire cost, while several others gave the Doctor or promised small sums for this purpose.

We believe that this idea should be consummated, and that Flag Day is a good time to remind our readers of this and to urge their co-operation.

Let us have a suitable Municipal Flag Pole, and let us have it soon?

BE A GOOD SAMARITAN

The age old story of the Good Samaritan was not told and perpetuated for naught. There is a message in it that applies particularly to-day.

The Samaritan did not allow his racial or denominational feelings to deter him from rendering his aid and comfort to the sufferer by the wayside. Likewise we must not allow any personal or religious opinions to deter us from giving our best co-operation in the Samaritan work which is carried on so effectively by the Red Cross.

More than one hint has come to us giving indication that some good folks here in Glendale have some hesitation about affiliating themselves with the American Red Cross. This is unfortunate, for it makes no difference what you believe or where you were born, the need of those whom the Red Cross have set out to serve—military or civilian, friend or foe, near or far—is greater to-day than ever before.

The Great War alone calls for a maximum of earnest effort by this organization. The tornadoes of the recent weeks in our own country and the volcanic catastrophes in San Salvador merely increase this maximum, and the need is so great that we must help.

Will you be a Good Samaritan, or will you "pass by on the other side"?

PREACHERS' SALARIES IN CALIFORNIA

The preachers as class receive relatively a smaller remuneration for their services than men in other trades and professions. In California the average salary for the ministers is $991 a year. Some of the denominations do not report the amount of the minister's salary. Below are given the average salaries for some of the denominations, the figures being based on the latest published reports: Brethren, $925; Christian, $1,115; Congregational, $1,193; Episcopal, $832; Evangelical Association, $850; Friends, $711; Methodist Episcopal, $1,091; South Methodist, $638; A. M. E. Zion, $438; Nazarene, $566; United Presbyterian, $924; Cumberland Presbyterian, $334; Reformed, $1,200; Seventh Day Adventists, $897; United Brethren, $1,118; Universalist, $1,460. These averages would be much smaller in the cases of most of the denominations if the salaries of the high priced preachers ($3,000 and over) were omitted.

According to a report just filed with the State Council of Defense by A. B. Fletcher, chairman of the Committee on Highways and Routes of Travel of that body, a complete survey of all equipment and tools in California which can be utilized in the construction of military highways, is near completion. According to the report, the facilities of each county with a complete list of steam rollers, tractors, trench machines, wagons, and similar machinery and tools is being made. When completed, the report will be forwarded to the U. S. War Department.

Night and day patrol systems for protecting growing grain and other crops may be inaugurated in a score of counties, if the suggestions made by the State Council of Defense to county councils are followed out. Because of the millions of dollars represented in increased crop production and the dangers from fire which may destroy these crops, the State Council has requested that each county council inaugurate regular patrol systems. In connection with the patrol system it is proposed to establish restricted zones, from which persons who cannot give a good account of themselves shall be prohibited and a close watch kept upon all persons traveling through such districts. Colusa county already has taken steps for the establishment of such patrol system.

The Glendale Evening News should be delivered at your home by the carrier not later than 4:30 p. m. every day except Sunday, and usually much earlier than that time. Subscribers who have not received their paper at 4:30 o'clock, should notify the office by phone: Glendale 132, Home 2401.

UNITE FORCES

If you want a strong daily paper in your community, a paper that will be a credit to the business and residence section of the city, you should unite in supporting it in every possible way, not on account of the publisher, but on account of the good a right live enterprising daily paper will do in your city. A daily paper in Glendale will be just such a paper as the people will make it, providing the publisher is prepared to do the editing and the mechanical work. If you plant a tree in the door yard and properly care for it, the tree will thrive and grow, but if you plant several trees close to the tree already there, the newly planted trees will not thrive and the large tree will have its growth hampered and will not afford the shade and the beauty it could give if it could get the nutrition it needs.

If you want a daily paper in Glendale that will represent the city in a more creditable manner, unite forces in supporting the Evening News in every possible manner. It is only a straight, common sense business proposition.

IT'S EVERYBODY'S JOB

Are we "tango lizards and male manicures" as some cynical German has contemptuously dubbed the American people?

Of course we're not. But the man who is able to do so and refuses to buy a Liberty Bond, who dodges his obligations by snorting "Let the big fellow do it" isn't far from earning the title. It is up to all the people to show that Uncle Sam and all of Uncle Sam's nephews and nieces have embarked upon this war earnestly and seriously and above all—unitedly.

For this isn't a rich man's war. Not for America, it isn't, whatever the kings and princelets and the "big fellows" of Europe may be fighting for. We do not hunger for another's lands nor thirst for conquest. For us it is a war for the sacred principle of democracy, for freedom, for future safety and the end of war. It is a war for all the people and that its ends may succeed it must be waged by all the people.

Uncle Sam has stepped in to set the world aright, and if the task is to be well done and quickly done every loyal citizen must do his part. All of us can't serve in the first line trenches, but all can answer the call of duty. And to-day's imperative call is to loan to the nation, which is ourselves, our accumulated or future savings on absolute security. It isn't much to ask. It doesn't call for great sacrifice. Almost everybody can afford to buy at least one bond on the installment plan.

By the number of subscribers as well as the aggregate subscriptions we will show our German critics that we are not slackers, not wasters, not always careless and frivolous, not "tango lizards and male manicures" if you please, but a great, united people, each willing to do his part, loyal and earnest and faithful to the cause of democracy.

Let the big fellow do it?

No!

Let us, all the people, do it!

BIBLE CONFERENCE ECHO.

For various reasons the publishing of the following sermon by Dr. Evans at Bible conference at Presbyterian Church has been delayed.

Title: "Being Crucified with Christ."

These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said Father, the hour is come; glorify Thy Son, that Thy Son may also glorify thee.

As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.

I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

And now, O Father, glory thou with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

These are the first five verses of the seventeenth chapter of John, the chapter called properly the Lord's prayer. And this is a pearl out of the wonderful necklace of prayer in the life of our Master.

What a liturgy the church would have if the prayers of our Lord had been preserved! It is only here and there that we catch a sentence of His prayer life. With this exception I think there is not a complete prayer of our Lord anywhere in the Gospels, and this is a complete prayer, and it behoves the church to read and to know and to obey this prayer. It is a wonderful prayer in its scope. It begins away back before time was, with the foundation of the ages. While the Master utters it His feet are in the way of sorrows but His head is in the glory with the Father. It is a wonderful prayer in that it is so comprehensive and full. There is nothing left unasked for by Mary's Son in this wonderful prayer. I know of no prayer that a man can read when grief is blinding him and despair is crushing out his hope, when he feels the enemy coming like a flood, which so overwhelms him with superhuman strength, and comforts him like this prayer. And many a Christian warrior has fought his battle, won his laurels and sung his glory song in the very presence of this wonderful prayer of our Lord.

The prayer divides itself into three parts. In the first five verses our Lord prays for Himself. He has not much to ask for Himself, for it is an altruistic prayer all through. He never had much to ask for Himself. In verses 6 to 19 He prays for the circle of the Twelve, and in verses 21 to 26 for the whole church of the future.

I shall take up this evening the first five verses: Christ's prayer for Himself. Somehow we have come to look upon this chapter as an intercessory prayer to such a degree that we have lost the element of Christ's prayer for Himself. He prays for three things. First, that He may be glorified through suffering. Second, that He may be glorified through service. Third, that He may be glorified through obedience. Note the words: "Father, the hour is come." He was always saying that. Every crisis in the life of our Master is marked by the words, "The hour is come" or "The hour is not yet come." He seemed to live on a plan with a program. He never seemed to be ahead of God and never seemed to lag behind. He was always watching the hour; so we read, again, that when they came to take Him they could not, because His hour was not yet come. In the garden when the soldiers came to arrest Him He said, "This is your hour and the power of darkness."

Looking up He said, "Father, the hour is come." What hour did He mean? The hour that Abraham saw when with lifted hand he was about to slay his son; the hour the prophet in prophetic vision saw when he said, "He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities." The hour Zachariah saw when he said He was pierced. The hour that in type and picture and symbol in the Old Testament the saints of the world had seen. The hour the clock of eternity had pointed to and which now was about to strike on Calvary. "The hour is come! Glorify thou me!" That is a new definition of glory. We have always associated glory with splendor, with a kind of halo, with a kind of a magnificence; but here is a man praying for glory through suffering. It is the picture of a man looking at the cross, looking at Calvary. When in the garden fainting beneath his load, immersed in that baptism of blood, that cold wave struck Him and that unsullied, untainted Man fought alone the great battle and trod that wine press. He feels He is weakening physically. His body is beginning to feel the strain of the burden of the years of carrying the world's sorrow, and He says, "Father, strengthen me! Father, strengthen me, that I may go straight, unflinchingly to the cross."

Glory through suffering. Have you ever noticed that in the life of Jesus He always speaks of humiliations as exaltations, His sufferings as glories? When He got a vision of the cross He said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified." It was glory through suffering. "Behold, we go to Jerusalem." "To die," "Yes." But out of death He brings life, out of darkness He brings light, out of hate He brings love, and He glorified God through suffering. The very flag which we honor is a flag that has been immersed and bathed in blood again and again, like a palimpsest, written and rewritten with the history of the men who suffered and died in order that the Stars and Stripes might be a flag of glory.

Here Jesus looks up into the Father's face and says, "Father, glorify me through suffering; bless me that I may suffer; strengthen me that I may die for the sins of the world." Have you ever thought of that when you prayed in your classes and in your endeavor meetings—have you ever thought of that aspect of it? We pray "Glorify me; O Lord, bless me! O Lord, make me a shining light." Preacher, have you prayed this prayer? Sunday school teacher, have you prayed it? Have you not, Bible class teacher, in the presence of your class, prayed that God would glorify you? It is all right; you have a right to pray it. You ought to pray it, only I would have you remember this: Are you willing to pay the price? Are you willing to go without the camp bearing His reproach? Are you willing to suffer if needs be for His sake? Are you willing to go anywhere, to India, China, Japan, the islands of the sea, into some insignificant part of the field in the homeland, where you will not be known and where, may be, like the corn or the wheat, you will fall into the ground and die and your service shall be unnoticed and you shall be unknown? The world says, "Spare yourself," and when it catches a young man who is in earnest for Christ, it says, "Young man, halt, you are going too fast and

Personals

A. L. Crandall is spending his vacation in the Yosemite Valley and is registered at Camp Curry.

Mrs. V. R. Abarta, formerly of Kenwood street, was taken sick at her new home at Chowchilla and after three days of terrible suffering was brought to Los Angeles last Sunday. We are glad to say she is improving and hopes to be well in a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wright, Mrs. R. Schoeneman and Pearl Beckman, all of Long Beach, and Mrs. H. H. Storrs of Sibley, Iowa, were entertained at a wedding dinner June 12 in honor of the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Beckman of 447 South Belmont street, Glendale.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Heacock of 507 West Ninth street entertained Mr. Heacock's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Heacock of 518 Lomita avenue, in honor of Mr. Heacock, Sr., who celebrated his eightieth birthday on that date. A delicious chicken dinner was served the first part of the evening, after which a musical program was enjoyed.

Miss Kathryn Coates of 1437 West Seventh street was hostess to two of her classmates Tuesday evening. The three girls enjoyed a delicious dinner, after which they all took part in a musical program. The young ladies who enjoyed the hospitality of Miss Coates were Miss Florence Heacock of West Ninth street and Miss Mary Elizabeth Stellar of Eagle Rock.

Mr. Arthur Campbell and Mr. Hugh Blue have returned from a delightful two-weeks' vacation spent at Mr. L. C. Brand's summer residence, Brand Lodge, Leavering Creek, Mono county. The hospitable host gave his guests a grand time, which was spent in fishing, golfing, horseback riding and mountain climbing. Mr. Brand is an expert fisherman and always returned with the limit. The fishing was remarkably fine.

Mr. Arthur L. Crandall, 1403 Salem street, who is cashier of one of the largest Los Angeles banks, left Monday on a two-months' pleasure trip to the East. He will first visit Yosemite, Lake Tahoe and other places of interest in California, after which he will travel to Tennessee. Here he will meet his son, Cecil, who leaves Glendale next Saturday, and from there they will go throughout many of the eastern States, stopping at Connecticut to visit friends and relatives. Mr. Crandall will return to Glendale some time during the summer.

The boys who belong to Troop 4 of the Glendale Boy Scouts are looking forward with much pleasant anticipation to their week-end hike to the Arroyo Seco Canyon, which is scheduled to take place Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week. This will be the first overnight hike ever enjoyed by Troop 4, and the boys are planning on having the "best time ever." As Scoutmaster Clarence Edwards will be unable to be present, Assistant Scoutmaster Elwood Ingledue will accompany the boys. They will first visit Brookside Park, where they will enjoy a swim in the fresh water plunge.

CARS RUNS IN TWO DIRECTIONS.

At about 12:45 o'clock today a large Pacific Electric passenger car on which Mr. Darnley was motorman and H. E. Lowe conductor, divided its direction at the corner of Brand and Broadway. The motorman headed the car on the Broadway track and the front trucks obeyed the steering gear and turned eastward on the Broadway track, but this was not the case with the rear trucks as they continued running on the main Brand boulevard line until the body of the car was in an east and west position and the rear trucks were headed northward. The wrecking car was called to adjust the difficulties.

DEATH OF PERCY H. SADLER.

Just as we go to press we learn of the death of Percy H. Sadler of 1454 West Seventh street, which occurred at 12:30 at Thornycroft Hospital of kidney trouble. He leaves to mourn his death a sorrowing wife and three children—Mrs. Helen L. Sadler, Winifred Sadler, Edwin J. Sadler and Mrs. E. L. Young. Funeral notice later.

LADY TEACHER will give individual instruction, shorthand and typewriting, at your home. Address Glendale News, box T. 2446

BIBLE CONFERENCE ECHO.

you will die young." I am free to say that the church of Jesus Christ today is dying for young men and young women who are willing to die young for it. I can picture Stephen appearing before the Sanhedrin and saying, "Father, glorify me" for it says his face shone as if it were the face of an angel; but one stone came and another stone came, and the first Christian martyr's prayer was answered with a stone. Unless you and I are willing to suffer, if needs be, for Him, do not pray, "God, glorify me."

"Father, glorify thou me." You can pray this prayer if you are willing to be glorified through suffering. "Except a corn of wheat fall to the ground and die it abideth alone, but if it die it bringeth forth much fruit."

The second thought is glory through service. "As thou hast given him authority over all flesh, that He should give eternal life to as many as thou has given him." The teaching of this passage is this: God has given into the hands of Christ full authority over all things. He spoke and it was done. He commanded and it stood fast. He sent Peter down to the seashore, and said: "Take the first fish, open its mouth and you will find a coin in it." He sent another disciple over to the city and said: "There is a man who has a room, tell him the Master will occupy it." "There is a man who has an ass, tell him to loose it and bring it to me." He looked at the water, and the water blushed when it recognized its Master, and it became wine. All power in heaven and on earth was given to Him. He could have made everything serve Him. You will never understand the story of the foot washing—many people continue to misunderstand it—unless you get that thought. Here in that upper room in Jerusalem, Jesus and the Twelve are about to sit down at the table. It was highly improper for a Jew to sit down without first washing his feet and hands. And here they are gathered in that upper room. Who is going to wash the disciple's feet? They looked at Peter. Peter says, "I won't do it." John says, "I ought not to do it." James says, "There is no reason why I should do it; we have been the first in the apostolic circle, there is no reason why we should do it." There was not a single one of them willing to take the place of the servant and wash one another's feet. And when Jesus saw this, these words are recorded: "And Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands"—absolute authority—and that he came from God and went to God—"don't mix this phrase up, that is the heart of the story—knowing it all, what did he do? He laid aside His outer garment, took a basin and poured water into it, then He washed the disciples' feet." I do not wonder that when He came to Peter, Peter said, "Thou shalt never wash my feet." But, blunderer as Peter was, he was quick to see his lesson. When it was finished, Jesus said, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Master and Lord, and so I am; if I then, your Lord and Master, have taken the place of a servant, you ought to be willing to take the place of a servant."

But tell me, is that the world's idea of glory? The world's idea of glory consists in being waited on, in having a maid or a second maid servant, in being waited on right along. That is the world's idea of glory—to be served. Jesus' idea of glory is to serve. And He who had full control of all things and power with which He could have crushed the world, what did He do? He laid the use of it all aside, and came down in the form of a servant, in the likeness of men, and became obedient unto death. He said, "Father, thou hast given me authority, and talent, and power to command, and personality. I give it all up for the service of my fellow men." He looked down on this earth and saw men sick unto death, oppressed by sin, burdened with pain and heartache, and a realization of the consequences of sin; and seeing this world He looked at what God had given Him, the authority and the power, and He said, "Heavenly Father, help me with these things to serve the world;" and in so doing God broke forth into glory through Him.

Light needs a reflector; it needs some substance from which it can reflect or shine, and so God took that responsive servant of Jehovah and shone through Him, because here was a man who was enthusiastic for God. We have often used that word "enthusiastic" in a wrong sense. We speak of the baseball and the political ranter who throws his hat up and hurrahs for the team or for this candidate or that. "Enthusiasm" comes from two Greek words, en, meaning in, and theos, meaning God. An enthusiast is a man possessed of God; is in Him; and in Jesus Christ the world saw the greatest enthusiast, the man who was inflamed with God and who outflowed for His fellowmen. He looked and saw men without help; He saw them groping in the darkness, and He said, "Help me to be light! Help me to be helpful! Help me to take what Thou hast given me and glorify thee. Do you know the firefly never shines except it is on the wing? "But we all with open face reflecting as in a mirror the glory of the Lord are transformed"—metamorphosed is the word. Only as we reflect as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, when the light of God shines through us by the surrender of our talents and service, God will glorify us.

Look at the men in our churches who have talent to teach in high schools and colleges, and women who have talent to teach in seminaries, and yet in our Sunday schools Sunday after Sunday classes must be grouped together for the want of teachers. Is that laying our powers at the feet of Christ and saying, "Glorify me?" Are we using the money God has given us? We pray "God glorify me!" Let us stop praying unless we mean everything we say when we pray. "When you pray, be not as the hypocrites, use not vain repetitions." Vain repetition does not mean repeating, for Christ repeated His prayer in Gethsemane three times. Vain repetition means "asking for things we do not want" for the sake of being heard. This will shorten your prayer, but I think it will make it more real. We pray, "God glorify me!" Why? That we may be happy? Yes, that we may find satisfaction in our relation to God.

How about your time. Are you willing to divide some of your time with God? We speak about killing time. It is wonderful how much time men have to kill; yet how little time they have on their hands when it comes to doing any service in the church of Jesus Christ. Take the list of any church membership, take the official list and look at it and the same names occur on almost every committee. You cannot pray this prayer unless you are willing to give some of your time to God. This is also true with your money. It is also true with your intellect; it is true with all your talents. If God's spirit should fall upon you and magnify you, would it be only for His service? If so, then God will do it. Here is a young man in the meshes of a sore temptation. He is with evil companions. He is in the maelstrom of some great sin. You see him fast going down, and you go to your room and throw yourself on your face and say, "O, God, glorify me, that I may get right next to that young man and save him from his sin." Here is a young woman who is gradually and slowly and surely drifting down to sorrow. No one seems to care for her, but you, woman of God, you go to your room and you throw yourself down on your face before God and say, "O, God, glorify me, bless me that I may take that blessing to that young woman." Or, "here is a classmate of mine, here is one of my Sunday school scholars who is not a Christian; I know it and I have not yet spoken a word to him about his personal relations to Jesus Christ; O, Lord, glorify me, that I may go to that young man or to that young woman and save them." Or, "here is my church; I have not lifted a hand to help it; if every member of this church were just like me, what kind of a church would this be? There would not be any church; there would be no service or activity; I have been indolent in the use of my time; but now I pray thee to glorify me that I may give of my time. Do you know, many a person is going down under life's burdens, defeated and unhelped and uncheered because we are faithless. When the eyes have closed and the hands are folded, then words will be spoken which, if they had been spoken before, would have saved that life. There is great danger that many toiling and weary men and women today are going down towards the grave who are just in need of the cheering word of sympathy that you and I can give them. The incense is gathered to scatter over their coffins, but why not take it and scatter it over the hard highway today? Kind words are lying in men's hearts unexpressed, trembling on their lips, which will be spoken some day when the dead cannot hear them. Why not speak them today? The flowers are growing to strew over their graves when they are gone, but why not gather the flowers today? "It is better to buy a cheap bouquet and give to your friend this very day. Than a bushel of roses white and red To lay on his coffin when he is dead."

It is said of Carlyle that he married a woman who laid herself on the altar of fame for him, and he never said a kind word to her, never a cheering word, and when she went down to her grave it was said that she died of a frozen heart. When he stood there, as the tears fell from his eyes, he said, "O, my God, if I had only spoken a word!" And there are wives in this world today who are waiting for the kind and the cheering words; there are fathers and mothers today who have longed for it for years, there are men and women who are gradually going down the hill in sin to a Christless grave, who are dying for just such words as a glorified man or woman ought to speak for God. And yet we are silent in the midst of it all!

Oh, if you want to glorify God, begin to serve! A pastor preached a sermon on heaven one time, and at the close of the sermon a young man came to him and said, "Pastor, you have been telling us a great deal about heaven but you have not told us where heaven is." "Harry," said the minister, "within a stone's throw from here there is a poor widow. She has four or five children. I have just come from there. They have no food in the house and they have no coal but one of the children, a little girl, is dying of consumption; so Harry,

LA CANADA.

Editor Tri-City Progress:

With your consent I take this opportunity of thanking Mr. H. S. Mackay, Jr., for his letter, regarding the annexation of La Canada to Pasadena, printed in last week's issue of this paper. I must say that the citizens of La Canada highly appreciate the fact that one member of the pro-annexationists has at last given an explanation of why certain parties in La Canada have been backing this proposition. Although some of Mr. Mackay's statements may be subject to debate, I must say that this is the first time any pro-annexationist has ever made an attempt to enlighten the citizens of La Canada just why this step was being agitated.

Mr. Mackay quoted several paragraphs from these columns concerning actions of the La Canada Improvement Association, favorable to a sixth class city. It is beyond a doubt that the improvement association had no intention of "robbing anyone of his valuable property," when it took up the sixth class city discussion. If unscrupulous methods were resorted to, or plots laid against the Valley Water Company, it was not within the knowledge of the La Canada Improvement Association.

CORRESPONDENT.

It has been suggested that one of the anti-annexationists favoring the formation of a La Canada water district, reply to Mr. Mackay's letter of last week and bring out the opposing arguments. Many are asking for both sides of the question.

With the honor of being the first class to graduate from the new La Canada grammar school building, the class of 1917 held its final exercises Friday evening, June 8, in the auditorium.

In view of the present war times the class chose as its colors red, white and blue. The stage was decorated by covering the front wings with two large American flags.

Following the opening chorus Charles Olsen, in a direct composed manner, gave the opening address. Florence Pate, La Canada's young star actress, sang "Little Boy Blue" and "Sweet Miss Mary." This was followed with an essay by Paul Arvidson and a harmonica solo by William Winfield. Florence Pate again appeared for a solo in the guise of a Japanese maiden. Charles Olsen demonstrated his ability on his newly acquired violin. Following a piano solo by Elsa Anderson, Dr. D. B. Scott took charge of the diploma presentation. The class roll was as follows: Paul Arvidson, Charles Olsen, Florence Pate and William Winfield.

Transformed with colored lights and an actually waxed floor the old La Canada club hall was the scene of a gay party last Saturday night, when the young people of La Canada, headed by Miss Dorothy Lester and Mr. Marion Lea, gave one of the best dances of the season.

Dancing in La Canada had been almost entirely given up when someone suddenly perceived the idea of fixing up the old hall for a dance. Last Friday night several of the young people strung lanterns, scrubbed and waxed the floors. Fourteen boys volunteered to stand back of the dance if it should not be a financial success. But contrary to previous experiences the finances came out to the good, after paying for the hall and musicians.

Mr. Jim Huntington of Michigan avenue invited six couples from Pasadena. Three couples were present from La Crescenta and the remainder from La Canada.

After July the La Crescenta Dancing Club has announced that it will close dancing until fall. If this is the case the young people in La Canada are interested in continuing monthly dances here. It will be necessary first to consult with the Valley Club members and formulate definite plans.

Sunday, June 17, is the date planned by Mrs. William Jewett, Fannie and William Jewett, Jr., to start for Connecticut. The people of La Canada are sorry to see the Jewetts leave but wish them a happy successful trip.

Under the auspices of the Busy Fingers a benefit entertainment was given last Wednesday evening to raise money for the La Canada Red Cross. Preceding the operetta "The Posy Bed," which was repeated from the last school entertainment, Mrs. Penfield had secured two talented musicians from Pasadena, Mrs. J. Marquardt, harpist, and Mr. J. Marquardt, violinist, who gave a delightful concert program. Mr. and Mrs. Marquardt have both studied and traveled in Europe. They are well known across the seas for their unusual musical ability. The entire entertainment met with enthusiastic favor.

The regular meeting of the La Canada Red Cross branch was held Tuesday afternoon in the school building. For three weeks the women have been making home purchased bandages. As far as bandage material is concerned the La Canada branch is practically free from Pasadena, of which it is a part. The bandage roller given the Red Cross by Mrs. Sillock has proven a wonderful success.

This comparatively new organization has made more headway during the short term of its existence than any other body that was ever organized here. New members are constantly being taken in but there is always room for more. The meetings are held every Tuesday afternoon in the school building. Visitors are welcome.

After spending thirty years of her life teaching in Kyoto, Japan, Miss Denton, a well known American educator, is in Los Angeles now and will talk tonight at the regular meeting of the La Canada Improvement Association on her work in the Orient.

Several in the valley who have visited in Japan are familiar with Miss Denton's work. She has been recommended highly both as an educator and a speaker.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance at the next meeting of the improvement association this week on Saturday evening, June 16, in the auditorium of the new school house. The address will be given by Miss Denton, an American educator from Japan, who will speak of that country, especially in regard to the education of the people. She will be introduced by Mrs. Dr. Scott of La Canada.

LA CRESCENTA.

We will have Mary Pickford in "Poor Little Peppina" for our feature next Tuesday. Her countless admirers all over the screen world do not need any further proof of her amazing versatility. This supreme favorite renders another novel character impersonation in the Famous Players Company's spectacular and thrilling production "Poor Little Peppina." As Peppina, the boundless scope of Mary Pickford's art is illustrated in her delineation of the various roles of the child of wealthy Americans, kidnapped by Italians and made to work in a Sicilian vineyard, a stowaway, disguised as a boy, a newsie, a bootblack, a fruit vender, an employee of an opium den, a messenger boy, and finally, the restored millionaire's daughter, who comes into her own. With this diversity of atmosphere and interest, and with its many dramatic and amusing episodes, "Poor Little Peppina" will undoubtedly be accepted as one of Miss Pickford's foremost triumphs. Also cartoon for the children, "Farmer Alfalfa's Watermelon Patch."

Mrs. George M. Pardee gave a delightful tea last Thursday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Swift.

Mr. E. N. Nettleton has left for a business trip to Chicago, St. Louis and Indiana cities. He will be gone for a month or more.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baldridge have had as guests at Onondarka Mr. and Mrs. Gordon T. Blackwood of Glendora.

Mrs. Seymour Thomas gave a supper Sunday evening for Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bissel, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Nettleton, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Pardee, Mrs. Swift and Mrs. A. C. Cobb.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldridge will give a dinner at Casa Verdugo for Mrs. Swift. The other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Pardee, Mrs. E. N. Nettleton and Mrs. G. V. Hoggatte.

The children's day exercises last Sunday were a splendid exponent of the care, time and attention of their teachers.

The next dance of the club will be July 7, and will be given as an advertisement dance. Full details to be announced next week.

The Women's Club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. Reynolds. A delightful afternoon with a reading of Ruth McHenry Stuart's "Napoleon Jackson of the Plush Rocker," by Mrs. Zoe Ballard Fuller of the Ebell and a melodious song cycle by our own Mrs. Howard Skeeth. The club is supporting a French orphan and also voted to buy a Liberty Bond.

"They are united by doing their bit." The Red Cross classes in making garments and surgical dressings meets every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from 1 to 4:30. Later on they will meet in the morning and hold session all day.

The Campfire Girls announce a business meeting for Saturday at 2 p.m. at the library.

Mr. H. L. Bissel has donated a number of trees to the school and these are to be set out and some apparatus for the children's recreation placed at a very near date.

Mr. and Mrs. Worsley have taken a lease on the Darracq place and will occupy it soon and make a number of improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leuenstein were up at their home place for a few days.

Lots of excitement over snakes these days. Take Josh Billings' advice: "If you see a snake go into a hole—that is, the snake's hole. Leave him alone."

The Red Cross wants donations of gingham, cretonnes, denim, etc., for comfort bags for the boys of the navy. Any goods left from curtains, pillow tops, etc. Bring them to the school house on Tuesdays or Thursdays.

Also: This is for the little folks. Do not forget the tinfoil and the cartridge cases. The copper and brass can be sold for the Red Cross and in this way you can "do your bit." Bring them to Mrs. Miller on library days.

Mr. J. B. Jackson of La Canada has bought a lot on Michigan avenue and will build immediately an ice cream and soda parlor and a photograph gallery.

Mrs. Erwin Wade of Inglewood has rented the Merrill cottage and will reside here with her children, Frances, Catherine and Maynard, for the summer. Mrs. Wade's husband, who was a noted chemist and assayer, recently died.

On July 7 the La Crescenta Dancing Club will give their last dance of the season. This dance will be an innovation. It will be an advertisement dance, each person representing some well known advertisement. A glance through the magazines will readily suggest many ideas for costumes.

Next Sunday the Montrose ball team will play the Glendale team at Sunland.

Rehearsals have begun for the La Crescenta Follies, which are to be given by the Woman's Club in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. William Scheuner and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krauter motored to San Diego last Sunday. They visited Herbert Scheuner at Chula Vista.

Sergeant Roy Rogers made a short visit at the home of Lucille Levy last week.

TUJUNGA

Dean & Co. report the sale of the fourth acre tract, lot 39, on Monte Vista boulevard to Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Douglas of Los Angeles.

Miss Myra Osgood is working at Mr. Rowley's hardware store in Sunland.

Miss Julia Culver is now settled in her home at the Knight place on El Centro, where she will be pleased to see her friends.

A number of village residents went to San Fernando last week to the June festival and report a fine time.

An extra session of the Bee Club was called on Monday night at the home of Ensign Woodruff. The Bee Club was the last club to organize, but has proven to be a good one and its membership is constantly increasing. It was decided to purchase an extractor, to be used by individual members of the club and kept at some central location. The business meeting was followed by an experience meeting. A number of questions were put forth, and each one gave their own ideas, that had come to them from experience, or reading. These questions are very helpful to the members. It was also decided to hold an outdoor bee meeting, as soon as the honey flow was over, and ask the county inspector or some other prominent bee man to be with us, the date as yet undecided.

Mrs. Barney Barclay has returned from her long stay at the hospital in Los Angeles and her many friends are pleased to meet her and know of her steady improvement.

Mr. Higby of Los Angeles, who has occupied the home of Mrs. Hatty Hartnaff for three months, near Sunland, passed away Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Reese of Los Angeles were visitors in the village Monday.

Mrs. J. C. Sherer of Glendale was a caller on Mrs. Sims on Monday.

Mrs. E. Brown of Gardena was in the village Tuesday, looking after the sale of her lot on Monte Vista.

There seems to be quite a bit of petty thievery here lately. Mr. Porter of Sunset avenue lost eggs, milk and butter from his cooler last Saturday night and others report losses of fuel and garden stuff.

Capt. Ribble entertained his niece and husband on Tuesday, from Los Angeles.

J. R. Johnson and family of Ontario spent the week-end in Tujunga with his brother, D. H. Johnson.

News received from Eustace Rowley from Mare Island reports that all are well and with him is Percy De Wello, Paul Lancaster and Martin Spencer. Paul Johnson is still at Goat Island.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Lang and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Lang and son, Charles, are visiting with relatives in Santa Ana.

Miss Salstrom gave an afternoon luncheon to the seventh grade scholars of Glorieta Heights school at her home in Glendale on Wednesday afternoon.

The postponed meeting of the Railroad Commission will be held at Glorieta Heights school house on Friday, June 18, at 10 o'clock.

Miss Julia Culver is visiting in Los Angeles for the week.

WIRELESS MUSIC.

By using from 50,000 to 60,000 oscillations a second a German wireless system causes musical notes to be heard in receiving instruments.

WHY YOU MUST SUBSCRIBE TO THE LIBERTY LOAN.

Yesterday in Washington Gen. John J. Pershing, in making a public address, stated, "Upon America is to rest the brunt of the terrible burdens to come." Such a statement could only be made by a general officer with the approval of the President.

We Must Win the War.

Putting the matter brutally: If Germany is going to be decisively defeated, we have got to do it, or, conversely, if we do not ourselves decisively defeat Germany, it will not be done.—Chicago Sunday Tribune, May 27.

These words from the commanding general of the American expeditionary troops speak for themselves. They sound the warning which all the initiated know, "Upon America rests the brunt of the terrible burden to come."

That burden will grow heavier the longer the war lasts. Each additional month of the conflict will cost thousands of American lives. Each year will add billions to our war debt.

The only way to fight such an enemy is to strike quickly and all together. It must be a knock-out blow administered by 100,000,000 people in united and concerted effort.

The first step is money, to pay for food, munitions, ships and supplies, for ourselves and our allies. It must be raised immediately to do any good.

Everybody must help to supply it, by subscribing to the Liberty Loan, according to his ability. Well-to-do people must take thousands and even millions of dollars' worth of the bonds. The humblest wage earner must take at least one $50 bond.

By delay you are doing your share to imperil the nation.

IMMORTAL QUOTATIONS FROM GRAY'S ELEGY.

No single poem in the English language perhaps has contributed so many lines that have passed into currency of quotation as Gray's famous Elegy. It is a veritable mine of epigrammatic nuggets that have enriched the language of orators and writers and become such familiar property that their origin is almost forgotten and they seldom now receive the credit even of quotation marks. Here are a few of them that will be recognized as old friends:

"The short and simple annals of the poor."

"Rich with the spoils of time."

"The paths of glory lead to the grave."

"And freeze the genial currents of the soul."

"Full many a flower is born to blush unseen and waste its sweetness on the desert air."

"Some mute, inglorious Milton, some Hampden gutless of his country's blood."

"Hands that the rod of empire might have swayed."

"The applause of listening senates to command."

"The noiseless tenor of their way."

"Far from the madding crowd's ignoble strife."

"E'en in our ashes live their wonted fires."

"A youth to fortune and to fame unknown."

"To wade through slaughter to a throne."

NATURAL DEDUCTION.

"That woman," said Herlock Holmes, the great detective, "has evidently heard that lemon juice is good for the complexion."

"Cause why?" asked old Dock Watson.

"She has such a sour-looking face," replied the g. d. "But as a rule, women have better complexions than men."

"Naturally," commented the pill peddler.

"No, artificially," snapped Shomes.

THE BET WAS OFF.

Two experienced anglers were fishing. One sat down on the pier, while the other stood. Just before beginning operations they made a wager with each other as to who would make the biggest catch of fish.

They had been fishing for about half an hour with little or no success when John, who was standing, lost his balance and fell off the pier.

As he went headlong past Dick, the latter yelled:

"Hi, John, if you're goin' to dive for 'em, the bet's off!"

SUPERSTITIOUS.

Neighbor—I heard your dog howling last night. If he howls three nights in succession it's a sure sign of death.

Nextdoor—Indeed! And who do you think will die?

Neighbor—The dog.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN.

"My boy might have been President of the United States."

"What happened?"

"He got married, and his wife wouldn't let him go into politics."

PA'S IDEA OF IT.

Little Willie—Say, paw, what is a pink tea?

Paw—A pink tea, my son, is something that makes a man want to get out and daub crimson paint on the town.

SOME WITNESS.

The prosecuting attorney had encountered a somewhat difficult witness. Finally he asked the man if he was acquainted with any of the men on the jury.

"Yes, sir," announced the witness, "more than half of them."

"Are you willing to swear that you know more than half of them?" demanded the lawyer.

"Why, if it comes to that, I'm willing to swear that I know more than all of them put together."—From the St. Louis Republic.

STILL TRYING.

"Jigsworth is still very attentive to that rich wife of his."

"Well! Well! And they've been married four or five years. I thought in that length of time he would certainly be able to get control of all her property."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins, "I am going to be in favor of government ownership."

"Have you given the matter any thought?"

"Yes, indeed. If we had government ownership of railroads I might be able to tell any conductor who didn't find me a seat on the shady side of the car that I wouldn't vote for him next election."

UNFORTUNATE.

"No, that salesman could not interest me in his car after the unfortunate remark that he dropped."

"What was that?"

"He said that his car was winner, and then he added that it would win in a walk."

FREEDOM.

The Boy—I shall be glad when I am old enough to do as I please.

The Man—And about that time you'll go off and get married, so it won't do much good after all.

NO WORK THERE TO DO.

Hix—For a long time he worked hard to get a government job.

Dix—He's taking a rest now.

Hix—Gave up in despair, eh?

Dix—No; he got the government job.

BIBLE CONFERENCE ECHO.

go to the coal yard and ask them to send some coal there, and on your way go to the grocery store and get a basket and put some provisions into it and take it up there; and when you get there repeat the 23rd Psalm, "The Lord is my shepherd," and pray the Lord's prayer, "Give us this day our daily bread." The young man went and the pastor was watching. The young man took the basket of provisions there, and he took the things out one by one and put them on the table, and then he read the 23rd Psalm, and then he knelt down, as he could then, and tried to pray the Lord's prayer; but he could not; he was so full of gladness the glory shone out of his face; and as he left the home and came down stairs the pastor met him and said, "How is it now?" "Oh," he said, "I am not asking where heaven is, I have been in heaven."

If you want the glory of God to shine in your life and to break forth through you, begin to say, "Father, the hour is come when I shall serve as God wants me to serve."

At the conclusion of the above address Dr. Evans seemed led to close with a consecration service, which was solemn and impressive in the extreme and from the great blessing that came into the hearts of many it would seem that this was indeed a fitting climax to the many blessed sessions of that wonderful Bible conference wherein many came into the possession for the first time of that "Blessed Hope"—the imminent return of our Lord.

And thanks be to God, He had answered our prayers for a glorious prophetic conference.

If you have grown rusty it is no sign that you have an iron will.
